Micah Bradley counsels individuals and businesses on a wide range of complex litigation matters. Her work spans a diverse range of subject areas shaped by the unique needs of her clients, including antitrust, healthcare, real estate, and criminal law. She also assists clients with pursuing and defending bid protests, navigating government investigations, and responding to subpoenas. Micah thrives in fast-paced, high-stakes scenarios, quickly mastering complex facts and legal issues to deliver effective advocacy.

Before joining Sherrard Roe, Micah was a law clerk for the Honorable Eli Richardson of the United States District Court for the Middle District of Tennessee.

Micah earned her J.D. from Vanderbilt University Law School, where she received the Founder's Medal for first honors and was a member of the Order of the Coif. While at Vanderbilt, she worked as the Senior En Banc Editor of the Vanderbilt Law Review and as an Articles Editor for the Environmental Law and Policy Annual Review. Micah graduated summa cum laude from Rollins College with an Artium Baccalaureus Honoris in English.

Micah is dedicated to serving the local community, through her pro bono work and her role on the Board of Directors of the Nashville Shakespeare Festival. Micah and her husband reside in West Nashville with their dogs and cat.
